KE 15144 - THE USAF SCHOOL FOR LATIN AMERICA at Albright AFB, Canal Zone, provides instruction in technical specialties to officers and airmen of the Latin American air forces. The curriculum consists of eighteen standard USAF courses adapted to specific Latin American needs, and is taught in Spanish by USAF instructors. Over 4,000 air force men from 20 different republics have attended the school since it was established in 1943.

Shown here is the main gate to Albright AFB, with the school headquarters in the background.
